Hey survivor,

don't close your eyes

take advantage

sliding on the night.

Hey survivor

don't matter who you are

time ran so far away

and you must save your life

we know you can do it now

lonely with the moon

heart is broken

and there's nothing else to loose, you're the one that we belong to they chose the game to play

but they won't win again

you're gonna fly away

to the places you've been many times with a friend.

Hey survivor,

don't you be afraid

we are waiting for you

and soon you'll be back again

Hey survivor,

we're gonna fly away
there will be another day and people won't be afraid

you will fall in love again, knockin' on the door
you will think about the things to say.
